Swiss Finance Institute Appoints a Chief Financial Officer

Zurich, 30 January 2015 – The Swiss Finance Institute (SFI) has appointed Christoph Streib as Chief Financial Officer.

To support its current substantial development, the Swiss Finance Institute (SFI) is strengthening its financial management. The SFI Foundation Board has therefore decided to create the position of a Chief Financial Officer (CFO).

As per February 1, 2015 Christoph Streib will assume the function of CFO and will be a member of the Institute's Management Board. Emphasis will be put on the overall management and cross-functional support for financial tasks such as control, planning, development, reporting, and risk management as well as human resources, legal affairs, and investor relations. In particular, he will identify, develop, and carry out new business development and funding measures, while maintaining and expanding investor relationships as well as initiate, develop, and manage institutional communication, aligned with all stakeholders.

Claudio Loderer, SFI Managing Director, is pleased to comment: "Christoph brings a vast know-how in financial management. I am delighted to have him on board and I am convinced that together with him and the management team we will be able to contribute substantially to the development and high standing of the SFI. With over 32 years in the finance industry, Christoph perfectly complements our team as a practitioner and entrepreneur."

Christoph Streib is a Swiss national and comes to SFI from his current position as Director, Head Competence Center Corporate Treasury and Key Account Manager Large Swiss Corporates from Credit Suisse. Prior to this position, he has had varied experiences in large and small organizations in industry and finance.
